With well over a million streams since the 2024 release of “In Momentum”, TVLI has built a dedicated following of over 70,000 social media followers drawn to his pensive take on melodic and progressive house. His track “Tempest” became a viral hit with over 13 million plays on Instagram resulting in Apple Music editorial support as well as tens of thousands of new followers. Recently discovered by Grammy-nominated artist BT and Christian Burns, TVLI was signed to Tiësto-founded Black Hole Recordings as well as KSS3TE After Dark Recordings. TVLI has since been supported by additional record labels Sandala Experiences, Mise en Place, and More Than a Feeling (Lilly Era sub label) resulting in Amazon Music editorial support.

Between 2024-2025, TVLI performed his live set with nearly 30 shows across the U.S., Europe, and North Africa, including live sets in Marseille, France and Tangier, Morocco. His 2025 Chicago debut at Sound-Bar included a direct support slot for Anjunadeep artist Rezident.

TVLI’s musical journey began with piano lessons at age five, followed by many years and a few small tours as a guitarist in several rock bands. His transition to electronic music began during a 2015 military deployment, when he started producing tracks on a laptop using Ableton Live as a creative outlet to destress and reset. After his military service, he immersed himself in analog synthesis, crafting a distinct sound characterized by cinematic textures and warm, analog tones. With a growing global fanbase, viral recognition, and a fully self-produced, TVLI is redefining what it means to perform electronic music.
